Dear brothers in Christ,

This August I will mark fifteen years as the head of the Jackson campus of Reformed Theological Seminary. Time has flown! It continues to be an amazing journey as year by year, we continue to see our God as ever faithful to our calling and work before Him.

This has been a particularly exciting and encouraging year. The spirit of our campus has never been better. By God's grace, we now have a full faculty with the addition of Drs. Mike McKelvey in Old Testament, Charlie Wingard in Practical Theology, and Sean Lucas teaching Church History. Most importantly, God has led Dr. Ligon Duncan to become our Chancellor and CEO. He is amazing! While he still teaches Systematic Theology and his wonderful class on the Covenants, he is traveling and speaking widely to represent RTS literally around the world. And importantly, we are seeing a significant jump in enrollment for this upcoming fall semester. We have much to be thankful for!

We are also very grateful that God would give us the privilege of laboring together with our brothers in Mississippi Valley Presbytery in this work for Christ's kingdom. You are a crucial part of the work that we do, and I personally thank you for your friendship, prayers, and active support that so many of you continue to give in our work here at the seminary. We do not ever want to take you for granted.

At this time of the year, and in compliance with the standing rules for our presbytery, I am requesting that I be allowed to continue in my work at Reformed Theological Seminary for the upcoming year as a fellow minister laboring "out of bounds." Thank you for your help to allow me to continue at RTS in partnership with each of you and your churches.

In the service of our living Lord,

Guy Richardson
