Ministry through Karawaci Presbyterian Church and YPPH Foundation in Indonesia

- Made 5 trips to Indonesia from June 2014 through May 2015 – September, November, January, March, May

KPC as an evangelist under MVP

- Established a PCA-type church that is still in mission status with members but no officers yet – The confessional statement is the same as the PCA; the BCO is an adapted version of the PCA BCO.
- Preached on Sunday mornings twice in November, 3 times in January, 3 times in March, 2 times in May to an early service of @ 2,500 and a late service of over 100; supervised the preachers, order of worship, etc. for the Sundays when I was not in Indonesia
- Taught an Inquirer's Class for new members two times
- Received 25 members and baptized one of them on profession of faith
- Officiated at one communion service for the congregation

- Led weekly meetings of a temporary group operating as a kind of “session” under my authority as evangelist, composed of an PCA ruling elder and an ordained EPC teaching elder; approved minutes of each meeting
- Met individually and counselled with a number of the members and prospective members of KPC

YPPH Educational Foundation

- Taught, in person or by teleconference, principles of Reformed theology to @ 15 people monthly who are the leadership of the foundation, the university, and the school system with which I work in Indonesia
- On each trip to Indonesia, taught in person principles of Reformed theology to @ 15 people who are the lecturers in theology and Bible at the university
- Officiated under the auspices of KPC at a communion service for the university faculty and staff
- On each trip to Indonesia, met as an advisor/consultant with each member of the top leadership of the foundation and the university
- On each trip to Indonesia, preached once at the faculty and staff chapel at the university to @ 2500 people
