

Memorial Resolution of the Macon Presbyterian Church
Macon, Mississippi
2 April, 2000

Ernest Thornton George, Jr.

WHEREAS, the God of all grace, in his infinite wisdom and mercy, called home our brother, friend, and fellow laborer, Ernest Thornton George, Jr., on January 4, 2000; and

WHEREAS, Ernest Thornton George, Jr., a son of this congregation, was brought to repentance and faith in his youth and served faithfully in the Church of our Lord Jesus Christ as a ruling elder in this congregation since 1959; and

WHEREAS, his Christian character, devotion to the Word of God and Christian literature, and commitment to the Reformed faith and Presbyterian polity are acknowledged by all who knew him; and

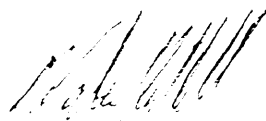

WHEREAS, he served his country with honor in the United States Army during World War II as an engineer and sought as a husband, father, farmer and community leader to set Christ apart as Lord in all things, and

WHEREAS, he ministered to others in his final years through his example of patience and submission to the will of God in suffering,

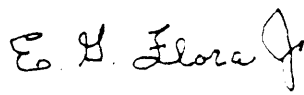

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Session of the Macon Presbyterian Church expresses its deep sense of loss in the passing of our brother Ernest Thornton George, Jr., our appreciation for his example and service, and our thanks to Almighty God for allowing us the joy and blessing of having known, loved, and labored with this strong and courageous servant of the Lord.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this resolution be spread upon the minutes of this Session, a copy be presented to his wife and children, and a copy be sent to the Presbytery of the Mississippi Valley at the June meeting of Presbytery when such memorials are received
