

IN MEMORIAM

HENRY B. PHILLIPS

February 28, 1911 - December 29, 1989

WHEREAS, God comforts us with the assurance that the death of His saints is precious in His sight and the death of Henry B. Phillips happened by God's sovereign good pleasure on December 29, 1989.

WHEREAS, Henry B. Phillips demonstrated in both word and deed his humble reliance upon God's sovereign grace, so that even his dying words spoke of the amazing grace of his redeemer.

WHEREAS, he faithfully loved his lifelong friend and wife Julia Phillips, raising with her help two sons: Lynne and Mark, setting before them and nurturing them in the gospel of Jesus Christ.

WHEREAS, he served faithfully as an Elder with a fervent and unswerving devotion to his Lord and his church, and committed himself to the enlargement of Christ's church through home and foreign missions, so the gospel might be spread throughout the world.

WHEREAS, we have been honored to labor in Christ's kingdom side by side with this devoted servant.

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the memory of our friend and brother will bring further glory to the Lord and Savior he sought to serve, unto the end that men might marvel at God's glorious grace, through the permanent recording of this memorial in the minutes of this session and in the records of Mississippi Valley Presbytery.
