

Memorial Resolution of Appreciation and Recognition of Jack C. Treloar

WHEREAS, God, in his good providence did bring Jack C. Treloar into this world on October 23, 1917, giving him a faithful covenant family, raising him through godly parents, redeeming him by grace alone, and making him a member of Christ's church, and;

WHEREAS, Jack C. Treloar played basketball while attending Holmes Jr. College, and graduated from Mississippi State University, and;

WHEREAS, Jack C. Treloar was an instructor at Camp Shelby during World War II, and then a teacher for thirty years at Hinds Jr. College until his retirement in 1976, and;

WHEREAS, Jack C. Treloar joined Raymond Presbyterian Church in 1946 and served as a Ruling Elder for twenty-five years, and;

WHEREAS, Jack C. Treloar and his wife of 64 years, Fay, opened their home in 1976 for a bible study that was the beginning of Pear Orchard Presbyterian Church, and;

WHEREAS, Jack C. Treloar was a charter member and one of the original elders of Pear Orchard Presbyterian Church and faithfully served Christ's church at Pear Orchard, in Mississippi Valley Presbytery and at various General Assemblies, and;

WHEREAS, Jack C. Treloar was a willing servant in all he did whether it was cooking breakfast for a men's prayer group or taking care of cattle, both of which he did until called home on May 13, 2004, and;

WHEREAS, Jack was preceded in death by his daughter, Lana Treloar, but leaving his devoted wife Fay, and his daughter Sue Ann Stewart and three grandchildren.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Session of Pear Orchard Presbyterian Church of Ridgeland, Mississippi grieves this passing of Jack C. Treloar but cherishes many fond memories of Jack as he lived out his relationship with his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, his ministry at Pear Orchard Presbyterian Church, and his genuine love for his wife and family.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this resolution be delivered to his wife, Fay and his daughter Sue Ann Stewart and that the same be spread on the Minutes of the Session.

THIS the 18th day of July, 2005.
